This 2912 sq ft beauty is nestled right underneath the trees. The location is fantastic it is centralized to accommodate most everyone in the family. Minutes from the local grocery store, fitness center and local coffee spot. It is walking distance to a well loved park in the area as well as the much loved local fishing pond ( only to see the family of ducks that live there of course :) The home itself has many updates throughout, beautiful flooring, plenty of storage, a walk in pantry as well as a natural gas endless hot water heater to wash away those cold north dakota days. The basement already has all the plumbing installed and the main electrical done
