Don't miss this rare chance to own a farmhouse in a prime location just minutes from Sidney. Nestled on three private acres, this peaceful setting offers the perfect blend of country living with convenient access to town. The home features a functional layout with vintage charm and several recent updates, including a new septic system. While the home is livable, it does not have a traditional water source, which may disqualify it from conventional financing. Buyers are encouraged to conduct their due diligence prior to auction. If you're looking for a project in a picturesque rural setting or an investment opportunity close to Sidney, this is the
