This affordably priced home has a fresh coat of exterior paint and offers a practical opportunity in a convenient, walkable downtown location. Inside, you'll find original hardwood floors throughout, adding warmth and character. The home presents a good option for buyers who are comfortable making cosmetic improvements over time while building equity. The property also includes a detached one-car garage, providing ample space for parking, storage, or a workshop. An additional covered parking area beneath the awning offers extra flexibility for vehicles or equipment. With its combination of location, garage space, and potential for personalization, this
