Spacious and full of potential, this five-bedroom, two-bath home offers the kind of layout and fundamentals that are getting harder to find at this price point. With updated windows and a full basement, the heavy lifting has already been started-leaving room for your personal updates to truly make it your own. The detached heated garage with alley access provides added convenience, while the adjacent bonus room creates flexible space for a workshop, hobby area, or additional storage. While the fenced yard is minimal, the central location puts you close to everything Sidney has to offer-making this an ideal option for buyers who value space, function,
